There are number of students who are studying in the universities and trying to make their career professional world. Unfortunately, when they have completed their studies they cannot be able to get appropriate job, because usually the curriculum that they have been studied, it now out of market and the industry is moving towards to industrial revolution 4 and 5. As far as concerned respect to emerging technologies, which is bundling with industrial revolutions 4 and 5 their systemic methodologies are now entirely changed. They are working with most precise, effective, and robust result oriented techniques and methodologies. Same as Managers cannot survive without knowing of technical or emerging technologies on some extent. So, we need technical or we can say techno-managers, who can understand the recent or advanced technologies and able to deliver according to the requirements.

To finding the gaps on this issue, we can sorry to say that; right now it is a huge gap between the industry & Academia, and now this gap is so much broader or wider, and cannot be filled at this stage, because it takes too much time to upgrade and requires involvement of various stakeholders from public and private sector to redefine a new curriculum, where also need updated faculties who can deliver, which is impossible with recent scenarios.

So there is only one thing to fill this gap that we can enable our students who can be able to perform and knowing about recent and emerging technologies & methodologies. So according to aforementioned problem Young Professional Program - Managerial Leadership YPP has been designed, which develops the necessary skills to perform in the recent environment.

The research and gap analysis is done by Dr. Muhammed Shaheer Waqar (PhD, MS, MBA, MSc), who is also educationist as well as the consultant in the field of IT and Management.
